

Read About These Three Girls. How Sick They Were and How Their Health Was Restored by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Appleton, Wis.—"I take pleasure in writing you an account of my sickness. I told a friend of mine how I felt and she said I had female trouble and advised me to use Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, as she had taken it herself for the same trouble with wonderful results. I had been sick for two years and overworked myself and had such bad feelings every month that I could hardly walk for pain. I was very nervous and easily tired out and could not sleep nights. I had dizzy spells and pimples came on my face. But I have taken your Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it has restored my health. I think it is the best medicine in existence."—Miss Cecelia M. Bauer, 1161 Lawrence St., Appleton, Wis.

A SCHOOL TEACHER'S GRATITUDE:

Geneva, Iowa.—"I have been teaching school for some years and I have neglected my health because I was too busy with my work to attend to myself properly. I suffered greatly every month and was on the verge of a nervous breakdown."

"I wrote to you about my condition and took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and the Blood Purifier as you recommended. These remedies have done wonders for me and I can highly and widely recommend them to every suffering woman."—Miss Minnie Shaver, R. F. D. No. 1, Geneva, Iowa, c/o Sam Erickson.

A COLORADO GIRL'S CASE:

Montrose, Col.—"I was troubled very much with irregular periods. Sometimes two months would elapse. I suffered severe headache, was weak and nervous, could eat scarcely anything."

"I took both Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Blood Purifier and the result was wonderful. I feel like another person. I think your remedies are the best on earth and cannot express my thankfulness to you for what they have done for me. I help my neighbors when they are sick, and I shall always recommend your medicines."—Miss Ella McCandless, Montrose, Col.

Is it not reasonable to suppose that a medicine that did so much for these girls will benefit any other girl who is suffering with the same troubles?

Does it not seem the only sensible thing to give such a medicine at least a trial? You may be sure that it can do you no harm, and there are lots of proof that it will do you much good.

For 30 years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the standard remedy for female ills. No one sick with woman's ailments does justice to herself who will not try this famous medicine, made from roots and herbs, it has restored so many suffering women to health.

Write to LYDIA E. PINKHAM MEDICINE CO. (CONFIDENTIAL) LYNN, MASS., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

Anty Drudge Helps a Neighbor

Mrs. Jones—"No, Anty Drudge, I haven't even tried that new stitch. You can't do knitting with rough, swollen hands, and my hands get so sore and stiff on wash days, that I can't ever seem to get them well. It's having them in hot water all the time, and then going out in the cold to hang up clothes. I declare, I'm discouraged."

Anty Drudge—"So would I be discouraged, my dear, if I did my wash the way you do yours. How do you suppose I have time to knit and sew, and keep my hands fit to do it? I do just as much work as you do, but I have learned to use Fels-Naptha Soap. I won't do hard work, if I can make it easy, and with Fels-Naptha Soap you can."

Let Fels-Naptha Soap do the hard part of your work. It can and will, if you give it a chance. You like to have some time for pleasure, don't you? Like to have an afternoon once in a while, to visit your neighbors or go shopping? Every woman does, but busy housewives can't seem to get much time to do those things.

How would you feel if you got your washing done some Monday in time to spend the afternoon resting or visiting or shopping?

If you are a Fels-Naptha Soap woman, you can; but if you have never done your work with Fels-Naptha Soap, then you don't know how easy and quick it is. It is cheap, too. It works best in cool or lukewarm water. It does all sorts of cleaning and washing, and doesn't hurt laces nor fade colors if water alone will not.

The directions on the Red and Green Wrapper tell you just how to use it.

FELS & CO., PHILADELPHIA

Supreme Court Makes It Clear How Men Can Be Nominated by Petition.

CHARLESTON, Nov. 14.—The right of the ballot commissioners to place the names of the Republican nominees under the heading of the Progressive ticket, to which some newspapers have raised a question, appears to the layman, at least, to have been clearly settled in a case handed down by the supreme court of appeals on Tuesday, but which had orally been decided several weeks ago. It is the case of Morris vs. Ballot Commissioners, from Wetzel county, in which a mandamus was awarded. It was an action to compel the ballot commissioners of that county to place the name of P. D. Morris, a candidate for circuit judge on the Republican ticket, on the Progressive ticket.

The court holds that to say that only a Republican can sign a certificate, or a Democrat, or a Progressive, to fill a vacant place on a ticket narrows the right of voters to present candidates for popular suffrage, and that the statute does not contemplate such narrow construction.

The question raised by some newspapers that the vote cast for Republicans on the Progressive ticket cannot be counted and that the placing of the names on the Progressive ticket by the ballot commissioners was improper and illegal appears to be clearly settled by the supreme court in the Morris case.

The opinion of the court in full is as follows:

"Brannon, President. This is a petition by P. D. Morris and other voters of Wetzel county for a writ of mandamus to compel the ballot commissioners of that county to place the name of Morris on the ballot sheet to be used at the general election to be held on the 5th day of November, 1912, in the column of that sheet assigned to the Progressive party."

"The Progressive party is a new party, which did not exist at the date of the last general election, having been organized by a national convention assembled at Chicago in June, 1912. It has an organization in this state and also its counties, having state and other subordinate committees, among them committees in the counties of Wetzel, Tyler and Doddridge, and a committee for the judicial circuit composed of these counties. The Progressive party adopted as a device or emblem a picture of Theodore Roosevelt, and as a legend 'Theodore Roosevelt,' to be printed at the head of the Progressive party's column on the ballot sheet for the coming election. Preparatory to the coming election voters of those counties filed with the clerks of the circuit courts of these three counties, they being members of the ballot commissioners, certificates nominating persons as candidates for various offices on the ticket of the Progressive party; but they did not nominate any one for judge of that circuit. There was no candidate for that office on the Progressive party ticket. In this state of things voters in the circuit signed certificates nominating P. D. Morris as a candidate for that judgeship on the Progressive ticket, and filed them with the circuit court clerks of these counties. His name was placed on the Progressive ticket in Tyler and Doddridge counties; but the ballot commissioners of Wetzel county, upon a protest by persons claiming to be Progressives refused to put his name on the Progressive party ticket in Wetzel county. Thence return or answer to the mandamus in this court states that these certificates nominating Morris for judge do not represent truly the Progressive party; that a majority of those signing them are not members or supporters of the Progressive party, but are active and zealous Republicans, seeking in this way to secure the votes of Progressives for a Republican candidate; that they are enemies to the Progressive party and its principles and candidates; that those signers wrongfully adopted in their certificates nominating Morris the device and legend of the Progressive party; that Morris is not a Progressive, but a Republican and the regular nominee for judge of the Republican party."

"The Progressive party being a new party casting no vote at the last election, its committees are not known to the law as competent to call conventions or primary elections for nomination of candidates, because the statute confines these two modes of nomination to parties casting at the last election three per cent of the entire vote of the state, or subdivision of the state for which nominations are made. Code of 1906, ch. 3, Secs. 18 and 19. Hence, while the Progressive party has full right to participate in the election by presenting candidates to the people, it cannot do so by primary election or convention. But the Progressive party or any other new party are voters and not shut out from presenting candidates for popular verdict. Sec. 24 says: 'Candidates for public office may be nominated otherwise than by convention or primary elections. In such case, a certificate shall be signed by the voters resident within the state, district or political division for which the candidate is presented, to a number equal to one per cent of the entire vote cast at the last preceding election in the state, circuit, district, county or other division for which the nomination is made.' Such certificate shall state the name and residence of each of such candidates; that he is legally qualified to hold such office; that the subscribers desire and are legally qualified to vote for such candidates; and may designate, by not more than five words, a brief name of the party or principles which said candidates represent.' This right to present candidates to the voters by the statute is plainly clear. It would seem to clearly allow those voters who signed the certificates involved in this case the right to do so. What is the objection interposed to their so doing? The answer says that the signers of that certificate, presenting the name of Morris for judge, are not sincere Progressives, but are Republicans seeking in this way to get for Morris Progressive votes; alleging this to be a scheme of fraud to do so. This is the immaterial defense presented by the return of the board. It says, in fact, that no one but a Progressive can sign a certificate to place a candidate's name on the ballot of the Progressive party, that no one but a Democrat can sign a certificate to fill the vacant place on the Democratic ballot. We can

State Veterinarians to Prevent Cholera.

MORGANTOWN, Nov. 14.—That vaccination is a sure preventive and the only cure for hog cholera was the decision reached here at the meeting of the state veterinarians. Dr. C. A. Leuder, of the state university, took the leading part in the discussion. He had vaccinated hogs for cholera, and not one animal so treated had died. In only one case had the treated animal taken sick, and in all probability this method of stopping the spread of the disease in the state will be pursued in the future.

The meeting was attended by Dr. Leon B. Reeder, of Wheeling; Dr. Callender, of Parkersburg; Dr. Stanley, of Clarksburg; Dr. C. A. Leuder, Morgantown; and Mr. Millan, secretary of the state board of agriculture.

awaken in our citizens a full realization of the danger that hangs like a cloud over society, on account of the lack of proper and timely education, then I have done some good, and will experience the delightful sensation of the Roman emperor who thanked the gods that he had never lost a day without having performed some worthy deed. If we are to keep from things base, of importance then is the shaping and the cultivation of the mind, a mind, as Seneca says, 'which is free, upright, undisturbed and steadfast, which thinks nothing good but honor, and nothing bad except shame.' When one considers for a moment the great responsibility which rests upon the state, and how many of the offenses which are not unfrequently severely punished may be attributed to a neglect of education on the proper lines, one should endeavor with all the means in his power to seek the proper remedy."

MOOSE

Blow-Our-Here-Next-Tuesday Night Promises to Be Big Affair.

That the parade, convention and banquet of the Loyal Order of Moose in Clarksburg next Tuesday evening are going to be an event is now indicated with reasonable certainty. National Director Riebeck has written that he will be here "without fail if it is God's will to let me get there," and Supreme Councilor M. M. Garland will accompany him. They will come via Fairmont and arrive on the interurban in the afternoon.

Fairmont Lodge, No. 9, will come over 200 strong in full regalia, accompanied by the First Regiment band in full uniform, and will arrive early in the evening at the interurban station on special trolley cars. Grafton lodge will arrive at the Baltimore and Ohio station at about the same time.

The reception committee at Clarksburg Lodge has been enlarged by the addition of R. A. Frame, of Adamston; W. E. Flannigan and Richard H. Lee. This committee will have charge of everything that takes place outside of the hall. A house committee consisting of William Hunwick, Charles Goss, Benjamin W. Boyle, Harry J. Wagonn and others will have charge of the banquet and all functions inside of the building.

Badges, hat bands, canes, buttons, etc., have been provided and may be secured by the members at the hall between now and Tuesday.

The Moose order has become one of the strongest in the world, and appears that Clarksburg and the state of West Virginia are not going to lag behind the other communities and states, as has been the case heretofore.

The members in Clarksburg and its vicinity are thoroughly aroused to the importance of this event next Tuesday evening, and are working like beavers to make it something truly momentous in Moosedom.

Bert Bradford, of Pennsylvania, is a visitor here on business.
